NOT RECORDED

b7E

In early June, 1949 information received through Bureau Source

b7D b7D

During the past war General John H. Hildring was with the Army of Occupation in the European Theater. There he dealt with problems relating to displaced persons and refugees. Upon returning to the United States he was assigned to the War Department Special Staff as Director, Civil Affairs Division. Shortly thereafter, through some arrangements between the War Department and the Department of State, Hildring was transferred to the Department of State as Assistant Secretary of State for occupied areas. In this position he had under his supervision a section of the State Department which dealt with displaced persons and refugee problems. The head of this section was Herbert Fierst.

b7D

Also employed in this same section under Herbert Fierst for a short period of time was Henry Hill Collins, Jr. You will recall that Collins was named by Whittaker Chambers as the treasurer of the underground Communist group for which Chambers was courier during the early 1930's. Collins' activities and contacts were investigated during the course of the Gregory case investigation. The investigative results were made available to the Department of State. As a result thereof, in the Fall of 1946 Collins was released by the State Department for security reasons. However, the reason given to Collins for his release was "reduction of personnel." As Assistant Secretary of State in charge of the section in which Fiorst and Collins were employed, Hildring presumably was aware of the true reason for Collins' discharge from the Department of State. In spite of this, however, according to information developed during the course of the investigation of Collins, Hildring assisted Collins in securing a position with the Inter-governmental Committee on Refugees, which operated as an adjunct to UNHRA and concerned itself with displaced persons and refugee problems.

CONCLUSIONS

It will be noted from the above that General Hildring has been active in connection with refugee problems for some considerable time. [REDACTED]

b7E

No information is available at this time indicating the nature of General Hildring's present employment. [REDACTED]

OBSERVATIONS

Informant [redacted] has in the past been found to be of an unsavory character. His services with the Bureau were terminated for this reason and for the reason that he was of questionable reliability. At the time the New York Office furnished the above information, however, the comment was made that it was the impression of the Agents interviewing the informant that the latter is desirous of resuming his former relationship with the FBI and several times expressed his admiration for the Bureau. He further stated that he would be glad to volunteer his services in an effort to obtain any particular type of information the Bureau was desirous of receiving. b3

b7EBACKGROUND:

The attached memorandum from [REDACTED]

b3
b7E

You will recall that information has recently been developed as a result of the investigation [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] On March 7, 1950, our New York Office was instructed to open an investigation in connection with the operations of [REDACTED] and to date no results have been received from the New York Office. Thus, the Bureau does not presently have sufficient information available to comply with [REDACTED]

b7E

[REDACTED] We do, of course, have certain information which I am sure [REDACTED] would like to have. However, this information is in an unevaluated form and has had no investigative attention to bring it up to date or to substantiate it. For this reason it is felt that the only reply we could send to [REDACTED] in writing is that this Bureau has conducted no investigation pertinent to his inquiry. This in itself, however, is not a complete statement since [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] This case, however, has been in the nature of a control file kept in a current status by the submission of reports reflecting [REDACTED]
