58 JUL 21 1950

Defending the six individuals in this trial were ~~ISAAC~~ PACHT, former Superior Court Judge for the county of Los Angeles and present chairman of the Los Angeles JEWISH COMMUNITY COUNCIL, and ~~WILLIAM~~ STRONG, former United States Attorney in and for the Southern District of California and present legal advisor to the Israeli Consulate in Los Angeles.

From a review of a portion of the records of the trial, which was quite lengthy, it was found that ~~NAHUM~~ BERNSTEIN, an attorney for the JEWISH AGENCY FOR PALESTINE, was the last witness for the defendants in this trial and was in Los Angeles for this purpose from January 8 through 17, 1950.

Examined by Judge PACHT on January 15, 1950, BERNSTEIN stated that he was asked by ALBERT MILLER in 1947 to establish air facilities which could be used for communication with Palestine and to carry refugees to Palestine. For this purpose, he stated that he obtained the services of ~~ADOLPH~~ SCHWIMMER whom he placed in charge of the procurement of aircraft.

BERNSTEIN testified at this time that the money for the purchase of LOCKHEED Constellation Planes and C-46 surplus U. S. aircraft came from a special account of SILVER and BERNSTEIN. At the time of this testimony, BERNSTEIN testified that he had met with SCHWIMMER in October or November, 1947.

SA JOHN B. SIMMONS, of the New York Office, appeared as a rebuttal witness in this trial to testify that he had interviewed BERNSTEIN on January 13, 1948, at which time BERNSTEIN told Agent SIMMONS and SA JOSEPH M. KELLY, of the New York Office, that he had never seen or met ADOLPH W. SCHWIMMER although he knew of him.

As a result of this trial, three individuals, ~~ADOLPH W.~~ SCHWIMMER, ~~LEON~~ GARDNER, of North Hollywood, and ~~RAY~~ SELK, of 741 North Curson Avenue, Los Angeles, and the Corporation, ~~SERVICE~~ AIRWAYS, were convicted and fined ten thousand dollars each for conspiracy to violate the U. S. Neutrality Act. The three other defendants, ~~HERMAN M.~~ GREENSPUN, of Las Vegas, ~~WILLIAM~~ SOSNOW, of New York, and ~~SAM R.~~ LEWIS, of 133 South Orlando Avenue, Los Angeles, were acquitted by the jury on January 6, 1950. Another phase of this case involving SCHWIMMER, GARDNER, SOSNOW, and others is now pending in Miami, Florida.

Inasmuch as certain portions of BERNSTEIN's testimony concern his background and past activities in connection with the JEWISH AGENCY FOR PALESTINE, portions of his remarks are being set forth as follows:

On January 15, 1950, ~~NAHUM A.~~ BERNSTEIN was called as a witness by the defense and gave his home address as 136 East 67th Street, New

[REDACTED]

York City. BERNSTEIN stated that he was a member of the New York Bar and named one of his partners as ~~EDWARD S. SILVER~~, whom he described as the Chief Assistant District Attorney of Kings County, Brooklyn, New York, and a former special assistant to the Attorney General.

In response to a question by the court (Judge PIERSON M. HALL presiding) as to what the defense intended to prove by this witness, that is BERNSTEIN, both PACT and STRONG replied "everything". -----, that the whole plan of operations in the formation of the SERVICE AIRWAYS were under BERNSTEIN's supervision, "the setting up of the plan, the purchase of the planes, the Panamanian situation -- everything." BERNSTEIN stated in answer to questions by Mr. PACT that he was the legal representative of the JEWISH AGENCY FOR PALESTINE, which he explained was an agency created and recognized by the old League of Nations.

BERNSTEIN stated that the American Section of this agency in America was headed by Rabbi ABRA HILLEL ~~SILVER~~ of Cleveland, Ohio, and maintained headquarters at 16 East 66th Street, New York City. He stated that it consisted of a Political Department, an Economic Department, and a Refugee and Immigration Department and has a substantial staff of people running into perhaps a hundred or more. BERNSTEIN under questioning of attorney ISAAC PACT stated that sometime between October and November, 1947, in the Executive Room of the American Section of the JEWISH AGENCY FOR PALESTINE, 16 East 66th Street, New York City, at a meeting of five or six men and women including Rabbi ABRA HILLEL SILVER, Chairman, Dr. EMANUEL NEWMAN, Mrs. ROSE ~~WALPRIN~~, representing HADASSAH, Mr. GOTTLEIB HAMMER, Treasurer of the Jewish Agency, Dr. NAHUM GOLDMAN, and a man named GREENBERG, first name unrecalled, it was decided that in view of the imminent partition of Palestine at that time with a consequent war with the Arab State the institutions and investments in Palestine were in danger. BERNSTEIN said that he was asked if he could handle the problem of acquiring aircraft for the purpose of maintaining communication with Palestine and the United States. BERNSTEIN recalled that a Mr. ALBERT MILLER, an Israeli citizen, had come from Palestine to attend this meeting and was at that time an executive of the Jewish Agency in Jerusalem.

On January 12, 1950, PACT continued the questioning of BERNSTEIN to show that the JEWISH AGENCY FOR PALESTINE financed the entire project of the purchase of aircraft under the direction of BERNSTEIN, and that the defendants in this case, SCHWIMMER Et Al, were merely agents. BERNSTEIN pointed out that at the suggestion of ALBERT MILLER he took over the general supervision of handling the funds and again at the suggestion of MILLER agreed to contact one of the defendants, SCHWIMMER, to head up a project of acquiring aircraft.

[REDACTED]

PACHT at this point questioned BERNSTEIN as to his service background, and BERNSTEIN replied that he was connected with OSS during the past war and spent sometime on the West Coast "in charge of preparing and training the missions for operations in enemy territory during the past war."

BERNSTEIN testified that in November, 1947, he met with SCHWIMMER, and arrangements were made for the purchase of aircraft. The money for this purchase was provided by the Jewish Agency and by means of checks which he deposited in his law firm's special account at the CHASE NATIONAL BANK, 20 Pine Street, New York City. SCHWIMMER opened an account to receive these funds at the BANK OF AMERICA in Hollywood, California. This took place in November of 1947.

Upon cross examination, BERNSTEIN stated that he became the attorney for the JEWISH AGENCY FOR PALESTINE in October or November, 1947, and that he last represented this organization when the planes were transferred to the State of Israel. He stated that he was a secretary for AMERICANS FOR HAGANAH in 1947 having been personally responsible for forming this organization as a corporation. He denied that he had ever told Mr. JOHN B. SIMMONS and Mr. JOSEPH M. KELLY of the FBI Office in New York that he had never met SCHWIMMER prior to their interview with him.

On January 16, 1950, during the cross examination of BERNSTEIN, the Government Defense Consul in the person of Judge PACHT requested the court to consider the feasibility of releasing BERNSTEIN at the conclusion of the cross examination inasmuch as he was to leave for Israel a week from that day. BERNSTEIN was released by the court on Tuesday, January 17, 1950, stating to the court that he was returning to New York City on that date and would turn over to agents of the New York Office certain material and records regarding the purchase of aircraft for Israel on the following afternoon.

According to Assistant United States Attorney HERSCHEL E. CHAMPLIN in an interview had with him on June 7, 1950, by the writer had the Government known of BERNSTEIN's participation in the conspiracy involving SCHWIMMER Et Al prior to his admission of it in court, he would have been indicted along with the others. CHAMPLIN said it is still possible that BERNSTEIN could be indicted in the Miami phase in this case although he does not believe any indictment has been contemplated by the United States Attorney in Miami in respect to BERNSTEIN.

WILLIAM STRONG:

WILLIAM STRONG is an attorney representing the commission on law and social action connected with the AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS in Los Angeles. STRONG is a practicing attorney in the city of Los Angeles and a former Assistant United States Attorney for the Southern District of California in 1947. He was also a hearing commissioner and regional attorney (New Orleans) for the National Labor Relations Board prior to coming to Los Angeles as Assistant United States Attorney.

The Los Angeles "DAILY NEWS" for Friday, March 19, 1948, carried an article concerning the formation of a legal committee for the AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS which included the name of STRONG.

The California State Committee investigating un-American activities in its report for 1948 has listed the California Chapter of the AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS as a "Communist front organization."

The "B'NAI B'RITH MESSENGER" for February 11, 1949, in announcing the elections held by the AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS Mens' Club for that year advised that WILLIAM STRONG was elected Treasurer for this club.

On January 27, 1950, according to articles appearing in the Los Angeles "TIMES" and the "B'NAI B'RITH MESSENGER" WILLIAM STRONG and GUSTAVE L. GOLDSTEIN were designated as legal consuls for Israel in Los Angeles. STRONG was designated to represent the consulate in all matters relating to federal law and procedure. GOLDSTEIN was designated to represent the consulate before state agencies. ✓

CHARLES J. KATZ:

CHARLES J. KATZ is a practicing attorney in the city of Los Angeles and resides at 2640 Carmen Crest Drive, Hollywood, California. His business address is 403 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, California.

This individual has been described in a previous Los Angeles report in this matter.

RAPHAEL PUMPELLY

The indices of the Los Angeles Office reflect that RAPHAEL PUMPELLY was born on November 29, 1911, in New York City, and that on May 3, 1940, at Los Angeles he married MARTA MARIA TAYLOR, nee SZALONEK, alias MARIARETTY, and was divorced by her in Los Angeles on April 17, 1942. The above information was obtained by a review of the records of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County under file D-219934. At the time of the divorce PUMPELLY was employed by Douglas Aircraft Company in Santa Monica.

Investigation of [REDACTED]

b7D

Investigation of this woman by this office reflected that she did not appear to be engaged in any subversive activities, and the matter was closed. Incidental to this investigation, a check of the records of the Douglas Aircraft Company was made concerning RAPHAEL RIPLEY PUMPELLY in August, 1943, and the following information was obtained concerning him:

RAPHAEL RIPLEY PUMPELLY was then employed by Douglas Aircraft Company as a tool projecting man, having been employed on January 8, 1942. At that time he resided at 8824 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood. These records further reflected that he was born on November 29, 1911, and that he received a B.A. degree at Princeton University in 1936, and had previously been employed by Twentieth Century-Fox Studios, Los Angeles, and was registered for Selective Service with Local Draft Board 241 in Hollywood. After divorcing PUMPELLY in 1942, TAYLOR married FLOYD A. NELSON, a Marine Intelligence officer, sometime in 1943.

PURPOSE:

To advise you that Nahum A. Bernstein a principal subject in captioned case during testimony at a trial made certain admissions indicating he may be chargeable with involvement in a conspiracy to violate the Neutrality Act and Export Control Act by smuggling aircraft to Israel. A proposed teletype to Los Angeles requesting information concerning action being taken with this regard is attached for your approval.

DETAILS:

Under date of June 29, 1950, the Los Angeles Office submitted a report in which there is set forth the gist of certain testimony given by Nahum A. Bernstein who was called as a defense witness in the case of U. S. versus Schwimmer; et al; this case involved a conspiracy to violate the Neutrality Act and Export Control Act by smuggling aircraft to Israel. According to Assistant U. S. Attorney Herschel E. Champlin of Los Angeles, had the Government known of Bernstein's participation in the conspiracy involving Schwimmer; et al, prior to his admission of it in court, he would have been indicted along with the others. On June 7, 1950, Champlin said it was still possible that Bernstein could be indicted "in the Miami phase of this case" although he did not believe any indictment had been contemplated by the U. S. Attorney in Miami with respect to Bernstein.

DETAILS:

AT MIAMI, FLORIDA

Mr. HAROLD BREUEL, general counsel for American Airmotive Company, Miami International Airport, and a former Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was interviewed concerning instant company and BUDDY EPSTEIN's connection therewith.

Mr. BREUEL advised that the American Airmotive Company is perhaps the world's largest supplier of C-46 type aircraft as well as parts for these aircraft. The American Airmotive Company is owned by the EPSTEIN family of Miami. The president is BEN EPSTEIN. LEONARD EPSTEIN, BEN's son, is General Manager, and one other son, STANLEY or BUDDY EPSTEIN, is Sales Manager.

Mr. BREUEL stated that this company has sold C-46 aircraft and/or parts for these aircraft to customers in practically every country in the world. The principal customers however are Pan American World Airways for which company American Airmotive performs all maintenance on C-46 planes, and various Latin-American governments and airlines.

The following are the officers of Lodwick Aircraft Industries, Inc.:

ALBERT I. ~~LOD~~WICK - President
CHARLES A. ~~PIERCE~~ - V. Pres. - General Manager
GEORGE R. ~~KITT~~ - Exec. V. President
BYRON N. ~~SERR~~ - Treasurer

The headquarters for Lodwick Aircraft Industries is on N. Lake Avenue at the old municipal airport, Lakeland. However, ALBERT I. LODWICK has previously advised that he maintains an office in Washington, D. C., and it is known that Executive Vice President GEORGE R. Mr. Glavin has advised me that he communicated with Special Agent Harzenstein in Philadelphia to inquire whether Harzenstein had knowledge of possible applicants for the position of translator of modern Palestinian-Hebrew. Mr. Harzenstein suggested as a possibility a professor in a Philadelphia college who might be approached.

In connection with the request for a translator by the Security Division, two things are of paramount importance: (1) that the individual be able to capably translate and interpret oral modern Palestinian-Hebrew; and, (2) that anyone selected for this position be unquestionably loyal to this country in view of the delicate nature of the work involved.

In order to render the work effective, it would also be desirable for the translator to be located in Washington, D. C., inasmuch as any delay in handling the translation would minimize the effectiveness of the coverage involved. It would, therefore, appear that to answer this problem, it is necessary to secure a competent translator who will work at the Bureau or Washington Field Office and who is undoubtedly loyal to this country.

COLONEL CHAIM (VIVIAN) HERZOG

According to the records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, 70 Columbus Avenue, New York City, Colonel CHAIM HERZOG arrived in New York City aboard the Queen Elizabeth on May 15, 1950. He was traveling on a diplomatic passport issued on May 4, 1950, valid for one year. According to the records at the Immigration and Naturalization Service, the subject was born on September 17, 1918 at Belfast, Ireland. His destination was the Israeli Embassy at Washington, D. C.

"DUBLIN, JERUSALEM, LONDON, WASHINGTON -- 'ITINERARY' OF NEW MILITARY ATTACHE

"Tel Aviv.

"When he is not in uniform, Col. Chaim Herzog, Israel's new military attache in Washington, does not look like a fighting man."

[REDACTED]

"Slim, with tousled fair hair and a friendly maner, Colonel Herzog has an air of the college campus about him. The college background is there, to be sure--he is a graduate of London and Cambridge Universities and a member of the British bar--but, like so many of his contemporaries, his studies have been sandwiched in between plenty of shooting.

"Dublin - Born

"Chaim's childhood memories are of civil war in Dublin, where he was born in 1918 when his father, now Chief (Ashkenazic) Rabbi of Israel, was Ireland's Chief Rabbi. (There is still an echo of Ireland in Chaim's voice.) Then in 1936 he was studying Hebrew and Arabic at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. When the Arab disturbances broke out, Chaim became a member of the Haganah. He served with the underground forces until shortly before the outset of World War II, when he returned to London to take his law examinations.

"Starting out as an enlisted man in the British Army, Chaim was sent on to an officers' training course at Sandhurst, Britain's West Point. He participated in the invasion of Normandy and the European campaign as a staff captain. With the end of hostilities he was promoted to Major and stayed on in Germany for a time with the British occupation forces.

"Chaim came back to Palestine to join a well-known firm of Jerusalem lawyers, but his legal career was cut short once more when the struggle for Israel's independence began. He was chief staff officer of the brigade which fought at Latrun in an effort to smash the Arab siege of Jerusalem. He also helped reconnoiter the 'Burma' road to Jerusalem. Most recently he has been Director of Military Intelligence of the Israel Defense Army, a vital post which he leaves to take up the even more important task of liaison between Israel's armed forces and U.S. military circles.

"Reunion

"A happy sidelight of Colonel Herzog's new assignment is the opportunity it has offered his wife for a reunion with her sister, Mrs. AUBREY EBAN. Especially since she has been looking forward to introducing her young baby to the infant son of the Chief United Nations Delegate."

TED KOLLEK

In the May 26, 1950, issue of "Israel Speaks" there was published a short history and resume of the life of "TEDDY" KOLLEK. This article is set out verbatim:

"Tel Aviv.

"TEDDY KOLLEK, who sits behind the U. S. desk in Israel's Foreign Ministry, Tel Aviv, is a dual personality.

"There is the Teddy who is a fisherman on the Sea of Galilee, like the simple men from the nearby hills who became disciples of the Nazarene.

"Then there is another Teddy whose blond mane of hair has appeared at intervals during the last decade in London, Paris, Manhattan and in sundry Near Eastern capitals.

"He has always been a natural choice for roving missions abroad, for, allied to a shrewd and versatile mind, Teddy possesses a pleasant Viennese 'gemutlichkeit' and a Dale Carnegie talent for winning friends and influencing people.

"Vienna - Born

"Theodor (a name nobody ever uses) was born in Vienna in 1911, son of a director of a Rothschild bank. Drawn as a boy into the Zionist Scouts, he spent five post-school years in training and organizing work connected with the chalutz (pioneer) movements in Austria, Czechoslovakia, Germany and England. He came to Palestine in 1934.

"Three years later, Teddy helped found Ein Gev, a farming and fishing kibbutz which clings to the eastern shore of the Sea of Galilee, a precarious bridgehead to Syria. Here he married Tamar, a fellow-member who also came from Vienna, but he was not allowed to settle down for long to a rural and domestic life.

"Supply Chief in U.S.

"First his talents were needed abroad, and then in 1942 Teddy joined the Jewish Agency's Political Department, that nursery of Israel's Foreign Service. Thereafter he was plunged into the restless years of the war effort and the national struggle--performing liaison work with Allied Intelligence, acting as a contact center in Istanbul with the Jewish underground in Europe, carrying out political and public relations activities in Britain and the U.S. When the state was formed, Teddy took over the vital task of acquiring and shipping supplies for Israel from the U.S.

"In intervals between these varied tasks, Teddy always has come back to Ein Gev like a homing bird. But now, as the responsibilities of his new and important task pile upon him, that other life--the hard work in the open air, the 'town meetings' in the communal dining hall at night, the boat out on the quiet misty lake before dawn--seems farther away than ever."

REUVEN SHILOAH

The April 28, 1950, issue of "Israel Speaks" contained a resume of the life of REUVEN SHILOAH by JOAN COMAY, datelined Tel Aviv. This article is set out below verbatim:

"EXPERT ON ARAB AFFAIRS WEARS ARAB BOMB SCAR ON HIS CHEEK

"By JOAN COMAY

"Tel Aviv.

"Talking to Reuven Shiloah, I suddenly remembered the day he acquired that scar on his cheek.

"I was crossing King George Avenue in Jerusalem, to turn into the gates of the Jewish Agency Building, one morning in March, 1948. Suddenly there was a blinding flash, a crash of splintering glass, and slowly, very slowly, the outer walls of the Keren Hayesod (Palestine Foundation Fund) section fell into the central courtyard.

"When the gray dust settled, it was as though a giant hand had torn a curtain off, revealing the setting for a play. A typist still crouched at her desk; a big map swung drunkenly from side to side. A number of people were killed in that explosion. Among the many injured was Shiloah, who was badly cut by flying glass.

"Always a Liaison Man

"Reuven Shiloah, who today is Adviser on Special Affairs to the Prime Minister and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, was then serving as liaison man between the Jewish Agency and the British security forces in Palestine. Ever since he reached adulthood, this stocky, soft-spoken 39-year-old sabra (native born) has been weaving his careful way through the intricate maze of Arab and British intrigue surrounding the growth of the Jewish 'national home'. His present status as an expert and top government aide on dealings with the Arab world springs naturally from this background.

"Shiloah (then Zaslany) was born in Jerusalem in 1909, of parents who had come from a small town near Vilna. His father was a Rabbi and Reuven was one of five children. In 1931, after graduation from the Jerusalem Teachers Seminary and a year of Oriental studies at the Hebrew University, he went to Baghdad as a teacher--his purpose, to expand his knowledge of the Arab people and the Arabic language. At the same time he acted as a political observer in Iraq for the Jewish Agency. Thus began Shiloah's membership in the Agency's group of bright young Arab specialists--many of whom, such as Eliahu Elath, now Ambassador to the U. S., Elias Sassoon, now Minister to Turkey, Maurice Fischer, now Minister to France, have since taken leading roles in the conduct of Israel's foreign affairs.

"Haganah Role

"Back home in 1933, Shiloah joined the Histadrut (trade union federation) staff as secretary to its Department of Arab Labor. Mixed unions of Arabs and Jews were already functioning, especially among postal and railway workers. Simultaneously he became part of the Haganah's HQ, with Arab affairs his special province. In 1936 a year of Arab uprisings--he returned to the Jewish Agency.

"Soon Shiloah was deeply involved in liaison work which with the British forces, during the period when the British gradually permitted Haganah to take over a part of Jewish self-defense. He later helped organize the late Gen. Orde Wingate's famous 'Night Squads', groups of Haganah veterans and a few picked British noncoms, which met the Arab raids with "lightning actions of their own and played a decisive role in putting the uprisings down. During World War II, Shiloah's liaison work with the British forces was broadened to include such secret efforts by Palestine's Jews as the dropping of parachutists into the Balkans and the escapes arranged for important Allied prisoners of war in Europe.

"Shiloah's close association with David Ben Gurion began in 1939. In that year he accompanied the future Prime Minister to London for the St. James Conference, which preceded the issuance of the British White Paper, that document of betrayal curbing further Jewish immigration to Palestine.

"The Traveler

"Shiloah lives in Tel Aviv with his Brooklyn-born wife and their two children, but they have seen comparatively little of him in recent years. With the end of World War II, he began shuttling back and forth between New York, London, Paris, Jerusalem and Near East capitals, taking part in the long-drawn-out battle for political independence. Last year he was at Rhodes as one of Israel's negotiators in the armistice talks with Egypt and Trans-Jordan. Later he went to Lausanne for the lengthy and fruitless sessions of the United Nations Palestine Conciliation Commission.

"Rumor has it that in Shiloah's brief case today are the details of much more recent contacts with the gentlemen across the Jordan."
