[redacted] The field checked this matter out with negative results. (S)

Consideration was then given to the possibility of approaching Dorothy Kilgallen for the purpose of determining the identity of [redacted] to which she had referred. (S)

The writer called Mr. Nichols' office on June 5, 1950, and talked with Mr. Holloman to determine whether Dorothy Kilgallen could with security be approached [to determine the identity of this official]. Mr. Holloman, after checking the records in Mr. Nichols' office, stated that Dorothy Kilgallen is considered to be "flighty and unreliable." He stated that if we approached her in this matter, we would be risking the possibility that she might write up any contact we made with her. For this reason, no further consideration was given to this contact with Dorothy Kilgallen. (S)

The field, of course, has extensive investigation under way concern-

[redacted] Therefore, no further action is contemplated at this time to endeavor to run down the story carried in Dorothy Kilgallen's column. (S)

ACTION

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Washington, D. C., reflect that ELIEZER LIEBENSTEIN was admitted to the United States at New York City on December 14, 1949 on visa No. 682 issued November 21, 1949 apparently by the U. S. Embassy at Tel Aviv. The records reflect that LIEBENSTEIN planned to be in the United States for a period of six months and that the purpose of his visit was "to explore special problems of American Jewry". He was destined to the Israeli Consulate General in New York City and was in possession of Israeli passport No. 12477 issued at the Department of Migration, Hakirya, Israel November 6, 1949 and valid until November 6, 1950.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service records contained the following descriptive information concerning LIEBENSTEIN:

Date of birth	December 2, 1902
Place of birth	Lodz, Poland
Hair	Brown
Eyes	Brown
Height	175 cm
Nationality	Israeli
Home address	Givat Rambam, Israel
Occupation	Member of Parliament

The Immigration and Naturalization Service records indicated LIEBENSTEIN's visa would allow him to remain in the United States until June 12, 1950. Although there is no indication as to his actual departure from the United States, no request for an extension of the visa is reflected.

It is requested that the New York Office immediately review INS records at New York City to verify LIEBENSTEIN's actual departure from the United States in order that appropriate stop notices may be placed with the Customs Bureau at Washington, D. C.

You will recall that the Director has approved the handling of this case both in the field and at the Seat of Government as a special. On April 12, 1950, the field was advised to handle the case and matters relating thereto on a thirty day basis. In view of the recent international developments which have greatly increased the work of the Bureau, it is suggested that the case and related matters hereafter not be handled on a thirty day basis but that instead, on a continuous and expeditious basis.

RECOMMENDATION

If it meets with your approval, when any case relating to the case is referred to the field, hereafter the field will be instructed to handle the matter on a continuous and expeditious basis but no deadline will be set. Administratively, the matters will be followed at the Seat of Government on a forty-five day basis. The field will not be instructed at this time to change the basis on which they are handling matters already under investigation.

RJB FROM : SAC, New York

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

b7E

Re referenced New York letter to Bureau dated May 18, 1950 and Bureau letter to New York dated August 2, 1950.

This is to advise that a discreet inquiry of the United States Customs Service at Idlewild Airport concerning the [REDACTED] has been made with negative results.

b7E

It was ascertained from this source [REDACTED]

b7D

It was also ascertained that some countries do not employ particular individuals as couriers, but will place the diplomatic pouch in the custody of the Chief Pilot of a particular flight who will in turn pass the pouch to an official of the particular consulate upon arrival in New York City.

It is not known that [REDACTED] follows this practice set out above.

b7E

No further information concerning [REDACTED] courier activities has been developed by the source at Air France. For the information of the Bureau within the past few months [REDACTED] have not been utilizing the service of Air France as in the past. The reason for this is the recently organized El-Al, Israeli-American Airlines, which is in the process of establishing regular service between Israel and the United States. At the present time this service is run on a somewhat irregular schedule.

b7E

It has not been possible to date to ascertain any information concerning [REDACTED] in connection with the above Israeli-American Airlines. Efforts will be made to develop a source of information in connection with this newly created airline. Due to the delicate nature of this matter no open inquiries are being conducted and any inquiries that are conducted are being handled in a most discreet manner.
