ADMINISTRATIVE

b3
b7E

By an Alien Registration form dated August 27, 1940, at Albany, New York, it is reflected that RINNA VITAL GROSSMAN, a British subject, was born in London, England, September 6, 1921. She was described as 5'2", weighing 135 lbs., hair light brown, hazel eyes and a resident of New Lebanon Center, Columbia County, New York. At the time GROSSMAN was attending Russell Sage College in Troy, New York. Her first and last entry into the United States was given as New York City September 5, 1939, aboard the SS "Batory". The Immigration file also reflects that GROSSMAN was a student in journalism at the above college from September, 1939 for a period of two years and then entered New York University, graduating in journalism February, 1944. The immigration file also contains an application for a visa by GROSSMAN dated March 5, 1945, at Montreal, Canada, reflecting that she desired to return to the United States to reside permanently and that she would return to her former address at 243 West 70th Street, New York City.

GROSSMAN's mother was listed as BARBARA DEPORT GROSSMAN, 243 West 70th Street, New York City and her father, MEIR GROSSMAN of the same address. GROSSMAN's past residences were listed as follows:

1935 to 1939 Tel Aviv, Palestine.
1939 to 1941 New Lebanon Center at Albany, N.Y.
1941 to March 4, 1945, New York City

She was in possession of British passport number C-102915 issued by the Department of Migration, Jerusalem, Palestine, July 6, 1939 and valid until July 6, 1949. The file indicates that GROSSMAN apparently proceeded to Canada for the purpose of applying for an immigration visa at an American Consulate; that she entered the United States at Rouse's Point, New York and was admitted for permanent residence.

Immigration file also contains an application for a reentry permit dated February 5, 1946, wherein GROSSMAN indicated that she planned to travel to England, France and to visit relatives including her brother in the English Army. She listed her employment as TIME magazine, Inc., New York City. She returned to the United States at New York City, May 1, 1946.

From photographs in the immigration file the above woman appears to be identical with [REDACTED]
