Dear Ms. Haschke:

On January 1, 2009, President George W. Bush granted a full and unconditional pardon to Charles T. Winters, the deceased father of your client James Winters, who was convicted in 1949 of conspiring to illegally export, and illegally exporting, military aircraft to a foreign country. Enclosed is the individual warrant of pardon for Mr. Winters signed by the Pardon Attorney at the President's direction.

Please execute the blue receipt enclosed herein acknowledging receipt of the warrant of pardon and return it to this office in the stamped, self-address envelope that is also enclosed.

Sincerely,

Ronald L. Rodgers
Pardon Attorney
