Sally, as you know, last week you advised me that this workflow ID # was published in the last exec sec report as not yet having been completed/tardy.

As I indicated in my 15 September note to you (which I am forwarding), and which you thereafter forwarded to Venessa Beechum, I cannot answer Mr. Brown's letter w/o getting direct guidance from the White House Counsel's Office on the matter, which I have not yet received. As an aside, Mr. Brown has been in direct contact with the White House Counsel's Office regarding this matter; he is aware that I am awaiting their guidance.

Please forward this to Venessa Beechum and request that this item be removed from the tardy list on the exec sec report.

Thank you
Ron Rodgers

Sally – this workflow ID relates to correspondence from a Mr. Reg Brown, an attorney in DC, concerning a petition he submitted for posthumous pardon in the case of Charles Thompson Winters. I cannot answer Mr. Brown's letter without guidance from the White House Counsel's office, which was requested in July 2008 when Mr. Brown's letter was received.

Please feel free to forward this e-mail to the exec sec folks so that they understand that we cannot answer Mr. Brown's letter presently. As soon as White House Counsel's Office informs us of what they want us to do with the pardon application submitted on behalf of Mr. Winters, we will answer the letter.

Ron Rodgers
Pardon Attorney
