The Honorable
Douglas Dillon
Secretary of the Treasury
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

During the course of the Committee on Foreign Relations current inquiry on the activities of nondiplomatic representatives of foreign principals, the question of the tax-exempt status of certain organizations has been raised. With regard to the following organizations, I would appreciate information as to whether or not they have tax-exempt status, and if contributions to them are tax-deductible to the donors. In each case where an exemption has been granted I would like to have indicated the facts applicable to the specific organization that brought it under the statutory provisions for tax exemption. I would also like to know if the facts developed during the Foreign Relations Committee hearings with regard to each organization named are consistent with those presented by such organization in its application for tax-exempt status.

The organizations referred to are as follows:

Portuguese-American Committee on Foreign Affairs
20 Pemberton Square
Boston 3, Massachusetts

American Committee on Africa
801 Second Avenue
New York 17, New York

The Christian Crusade
