The United States is committed to the peaceful resolution of the Middle East conflict. It is in the best interests of all parties to achieve a just and lasting peace that is based on mutual recognition and respect for the inalienable rights of all parties. This will require the involvement of all relevant stakeholders, including Israel and the Arab States, and the support of the international community.

The United States believes that the establishment of a Palestinian state is a necessary component of any comprehensive peace agreement. The United States will continue to work with both parties to achieve a permanent, just, and peaceful solution to the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

The United States will also continue to support efforts to promote economic development and social stability in the region. This will require investment in education, infrastructure, and other areas that will benefit all parties, including those most affected by the conflict.

The United States will continue to engage with the international community to ensure that the peace process is supported and that there is a commitment to the principles of peace, justice, and reconciliation. This will require the involvement of all relevant stakeholders, including the United Nations, the European Union, and other key players in the region.

The United States will also continue to support efforts to promote human rights and the rule of law in the region. This will require investment in human development and the promotion of democratic values and institutions.

The United States will continue to work with all parties to achieve a just and lasting peace that is based on mutual recognition and respect for the inalienable rights of all parties. This will require the involvement of all relevant stakeholders, including Israel and the Arab States, and the support of the international community.

Zionist 'Pledge' Is Forgery, Kissinger Says

A number of newspapers and magazines recently have received a photostatic copy of a pledge allegedly signed by Henry A. Kissinger, Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs, bequeathing $20,000 to the Zionist Organization of America. Yesterday Kissinger and an officer of ZOA branded the document a forgery. Kissinger said he had asked the Justice Department to investigate it.

Jacob Rubin, director of the ZOA Foundation Fund, said in a telephone interview that "Unfortunately we don't have such a pledge from any Henry A. Kissinger, the White House Kissinger or any other.”

ZOA has circulated many pledge forms and one could easily fall into the wrong hands, Rubin said. The signature on the form appears to be Kissinger's, and he said yesterday it was either a photographic copy of his signature or a tracing. There is no date on the document.

The form says that the signer does "give and bequeath to the ZOA Foundation Fund, an institution of the Zionist Organization of America, a membership corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York and now having its principal place of business at 145 East 32nd St., New York, N.Y. 10016, the sum of $20,000.”

The Washington Post received a copy of the pledge form from an anonymous-letter writer who said that he and others were disturbed that a close adviser to the President should be "affiliated” with the Zionist movement.

Kissinger said photostatic copies had been sent to a number of publications. He said he had never made any contribution or signed any pledge to bequeath funds to the Zionist organization.

Zionist Organization of America (ZOA)
Registration Act - Israel

By letter dated February 25, 1969, Mr. J. Walter Yeagley, Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, United States Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., advised as follows in relation to the captioned:

"Reference is made to an advertisement that appeared on page A6 of the February 16, 1969, edition of The Washington Post. A copy of this advertisement is enclosed for your use. This advertisement was sponsored by the Louis D. Brandeis - Zionist District, Zionist Organization of America, Jacques Torczyner, President, 1529 16th Street, Washington, D.C. It appears from the advertisement that there exists a possible obligation on the part of the subject to register under the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

"The advertisement contains a condemnation of the Soviet Peace Plan for the Middle East and ends with a request for money, with checks made payable to the Zionist Organization of America.

"This Division would like to receive any information that you might have available on the subject. In addition, this Division would appreciate any information that can be developed as to the subject's activities within the United States and whether the subject is receiving funds from any foreign principal, including the Government of Israel. In this regard, this Division has no objection to your Bureau interviewing anyone else connected with the subject."

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.
The enclosure to this letter reflected an advertisement captioned, "A Soviet Trap in the Middle East". The article reflected a pictorial map showing military and naval forces of the Arab countries surrounding Israel, which was captioned, "The Arab Deployment for Attack Four June, 1967". The body of the article reflected the following:

"The Soviet Union is forcefully advancing a plan for an imposed peace in the Middle East, and trying to win American support for it. The thrust of this Soviet scheme is to turn the clock back for Israel to June 4, 1967."

"The Kremlin, skilled in the art of double talk and double think, proposes a 'peace plan' which calls for Israel's return to her insecure and unnatural borders of June 4, 1967. The Soviet Union wants Israel to become a sitting duck for renewed onslaught by the Arabs she has massively rearmed with the most sophisticated Soviet offensive weapons."

"The Soviet Union seeks to render Israel defenseless in order to dominate the Middle East, the gateway to Asia and Africa."

"This plan, which only services Soviet imperialism, is detrimental to the interests of the United States. It will not advance the cause of peace."

"The American people want to see a just and lasting peace in the Middle East. Peace cannot be imposed from the outside. Peace can be achieved only by direct negotiations between Israel and her neighbors."

"The Arab states will come to the peace table when they realize that Israel is strong enough to repel attack and make the cost of aggression prohibitive."

"By making this clear to all the parties concerned, the United States will advance the cause of peace."

The article reflected that it was originated from the Louis D. Brandeis-Zionist District, Zionist Organization of America, Jacques Torczyner, President, 1529 16th St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036".

Unsuccessful attempts to locate and interview ______.

On February 17, 1970, a telephonic appointment was made to interview ______.
advised of the United States Department of Justice's interest in the Zionist Organization of America (ZOA). He was advised that he need not make any statement; that any statement he made could possibly be used against him in a court of law; that he had the right to discuss the matter with an attorney at this time or any time during or after the interview; and that he could stop the interview at any time he desired. He was fully aware of these rights, and that both his personal activities and the activities of the ZOA were completely available to the United States Government at any time now or in the future.

He advised that the ZOA was an American organization founded about 75 years ago. The members are in all states of the union.

The ZOA publishes a magazine, the "American Zionist" and also maintains a speakers bureau and public affairs conferences.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are the original and four copies of an LHM dated and captioned as above at New York. One copy is enclosed for WFO, in view of their overall interest in the ZOA and their local district activities.

No information possibly pertinent to the ZOA as furnished by asterisk sources has been included in view of the faint possibility of prosecution in this matter.

Numerous unsuccessful attempts were made to contact the obtaining of ZOA's constitution until finally successful on 6/16/70.

The newspaper clipping from "Action" was included in its entirety because of the extremely complex nature of financial support to the State of Israel and the numerous individuals and organizations involved therein. Any attempt at extracting or summarizing the information could lead to possible distortion and in view of the fact that this matter is in the sensitive Israeli field, it is believed more apropos to set forth the complete financial inter-involvement of Israeli fund organizations.

The original and only copy of the Constitution of the ZOA is herewith enclosed for the Bureau should the Bureau desire to transmit same to the department. No copy being retained by the New York Division except that in the enclosed LHM.
